

Heber M. Wells to Receive The Administration's Guests

Heber M. Wells, first governor of the State of Utah, will be on duty at the inaugural ball of Utah's third governor, William Spry, and his duty will be to officially receive those who will arrive as guests at the first social function of the incoming administration.

The work of arranging for the administration ball is now almost complete. Invitations are in the hands of the engraver. Committee lists have been completed, and within a very few days there will go out over the western states fifteen hundred invitations to the function.

Following out the declaration of Gov. Spry on taking office that no time has come to lay aside old differences and to work for the state, the committees for the ball indicate that they were prepared without regard to political affiliations. Men are serving of all shades of political belief, and the social word has been liberally drawn from.

The committee on reception under Governor Wells will be the largest. It is composed of 36 members, and its names will be announced in the very near future. It is the plan to hold a general reception on the lower floor of the Ogden hall, to serve refreshments in the banquet room, and to engage in dancing on the upper floor.

ADMINISTRATION BALL. Gov. Spry has made a special request that the title "Inaugural ball" be abandoned and that in its stead the title "administration ball" be used. It is rather late for an inaugural ball, said Gov. Spry, "and in addition to that the members of the legislature will all be guests of honor. For that reason it is more properly described as an 'administration ball'."

The guests of honor in addition to the members of the legislature will include the officers of the United States troops stationed at Fort Douglas. On the invitation committee there will be representatives from every county in the state, the plan in this particular being to have the invitations go to as representative a group of citizens, regardless of political faith, as possible.

The date of the ball will be January 25. With the announcement of the committees each one will begin its particular section of the work so that everything will be in readiness before the date of the ball for a function surpassing all previous attempts in the same line.

ELABORATE PREPARATION. Preparations will be made to receive 500 people, and Col. Squires, chairman of the executive committee declares that the preparations will be as elaborate as it is possible to make them. The doubling of all electric light capacity, in order to secure the most brilliant effect possible, is one of the plans. Another is to drape the rooms of the Governor's club, now occupying a portion of the Ogden hall, so that they may increase the capacity of the building for the general reception preceding the ball.

Of the invitations committee J. C. Eldredge is chairman, and Major W. G. Williams heads the floor committee. Extensive recognition is to be accorded the National Guard of Utah at the ball. The entire floor committee will be composed of National Guard officers. The scheme of decoration of the Ogden hall will be used, and a military tone to the whole plan will be created by the use of guidons, cannon, and stacks of rifles. Adjutant E. A. Wedgwood has personal charge of the decorations, and promises some elaborate effects.

The committee in charge of the plans for refreshments will work under the direction of Col. A. P. Kessler, formerly of Gov. Cutler's staff.

PRaise for Firemen

B. F. Redman Shows Appreciation of Work Done at the Bennett Fire.
 That B. F. Redman, of the Redman Van & Storage company, appreciates the good work done by the fire department at the Bennett building fire, was shown yesterday afternoon when Chief Glore received the following letter from him:

"Chief W. H. Glore—Dear Sir—As an expression of our appreciation of the prompt and efficient work of the department in handling and controlling the fire that started in the Bennett Glass and Paint company building on January 1, 1909, we herewith enclose you a check for $25, with which to start a new firemen's fund. The writer was present at the fire and realized that only through the efforts of the department was the warehouse of this company, located within 50 feet of the Bennett premises, saved from destruction, and we wish to take this method and opportunity of expressing our appreciation and gratitude."

Chief Glore sent the following reply to Mr. Redman: "B. F. Redman—Dear Sir—Your extremely kind and very complimentary letter of January 4, 1909, enclosing check for $25 for the purpose of starting a new firemen's fund was received with thanks. On behalf of the fire department and its members I hasten to acknowledge the receipt of same and must say it was very kind in you to do so because you were not directly interested in any loss or gain at the recent fire of the Bennett Glass and Paint company on January 1, 1909, but as an interested citizen, which in your judgment, being present and a witness, as you say, to the prompt and efficient work of the department in handling and controlling the fire, which you realize was of a most dangerous character. These kind expressions go a good way to encourage the members of the department in being prompt, and help to increase the efficiency also. I wish again, on behalf of the department, to extend to you their best wishes and hearty thanks for your kindness, and will place the proceeds in hands of fund as soon as it can be protected with proper security."

FORBES NOT IN SALOON.
 Sold His Interest Some Time Ago—Dr. Rothwell is Appointed.

"There is not a word of truth in it. I have never been interviewed by a Tribune reporter at any time, and I have not made the statement that I was still an owner in the Berkeley Club saloon at Bingham Junction."

That was a part of the reply of Deputy Sheriff Forbes of Bingham Junction, about whose recent appointment by Sheriff Sharp, a morning paper has printed an alleged statement to the effect that he was still a saloon keeper, and not a fit subject for appointment to public office.

Sheriff Sharp said, when shown the article in question: "There is not a word of truth in it, and it is without any foundation in fact. I said in the interview printed in the 'News' Tuesday, that I knew Forbes was out of the saloon business, and my reason for knowing it lies in the fact that I have seen the papers which prove that he sold out his interest in the business some time ago."

"When I questioned Mr. Forbes about this matter before naming him as a deputy at Bingham Junction, he showed me the proof of his statement, that he had sold out his interest in the business, and wanted to leave the papers here with me."

Mr. Forbes stated to a "News" reporter over long distance telephone this morning that he had never been interviewed about this matter or any other by a representative of the paper which had made the attack on the sheriff for having made the appointment.

"I have no interest in the saloon in which I formerly owned an interest, the Berkeley Club, as I sold that interest to Joe Melich, last month."

The county commissioners at a late forenoon session yesterday appointed Dr. H. P. Kirtley assistant county physician, and Dr. W. H. Rothwell, health officer of health district number two, to succeed Dr. Odell, who was yesterday appointed county physician.

The morning session of the commissioners adjourned at noon to meet again later during the day for further action in the matter of appointments submitted.

TRAIN AGENTS ABOLISHED.
 Their Places on Harriman Passenger Trains Taken by Auditors.
 (Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Jan. 7.—The office of train agent on the Southern Pacific out of Ogden as well as over the entire Harriman system have been abolished, and train auditors are taking their places. Will Cook, former train agent at Ogden, returns to Ogden as district auditor. The district will extend from Ogden to Carlin and the other district will extend from Sacramento to Oakland. The auditors will look after all transportation of the trains over the districts as it will give the conductor plenty of time to look after his train in leaving the terminal points.

CHANGE OF TIME.
 A change in the time on train No. 178 on the Marysville branch of the Oregon Short Line will go into effect Jan. 10. The train which now leaves Marysville at 2:30 p. m. will leave at 4:15 p. m. arriving at Idaho Falls at 9:15 p. m. instead of at 8 p. m. as heretofore. The change brings the train into Idaho Falls three hours and 15 minutes later than at present, and is made to avoid the long wait at Idaho Falls giving more direct connection with the through trains between Salt Lake City and Butte. The change will go into effect Jan. 10.

Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. COURTESY EXPECTED.
 Oregon Short Line Railroad Issues Orders to Employees.

With the beginning of the year, an order signed by J. A. Davis, general superintendent; J. A. Reeves, general freight agent; D. E. Burley, general passenger agent; and approved by W. H. Hancock, general manager of the Oregon Short Line, was circulated among the employees of the road, containing the wishes of the management in regard to the use of courtesy and politeness by the employees of the railroad. The order is a timely one, and shows that the railroad considers politeness in the intercourse of its employees with the public as a qualification which cannot be too highly prized. The circular is as follows:

"To employees of the Oregon Short Line Railroad company, and Southern Pacific Railroad company, lines east of Sparks: Courtesy costs nothing and yields large returns. Cordial relations with customers is an asset. You increase this property's value to owners and patrons as well as the value of your services, by making friends."

"Rules, necessary in a business so complex, cause less dissatisfaction than unfortunates method of enforcement. Good training renders familiar matters not understood by the public. Inquirers are entitled to prompt, courteous and complete replies. If something seems at fault beyond your power to correct, explain how and through whom to get the remedy. Manner counts. The salesman of transportation should make his customer as welcome as would any business man, inspiring the wish to come again."

"To general office and division employees: Above all, be polite; and remember your duties concern the department, where you should be expert, while the 'boys out on the line' deal with requirements in all departments. Write and telegraph as a self-respecting man would talk. Courtesy between and among you reflects credit on all rendering easier and pleasanter the task of each."

SPIKE AND RAIL.
 J. H. Manderfield, district freight agent of the Salt Lake Route, is south on the lines today on an inspection tour.

William H. Hancock, freight claim agent of the Union Pacific road, is in town today. He is registered at the Knottford.

J. A. Foley, commercial agent of the Illinois Central railroad, with headquarters in this city, will leave for the east in a day or two. Mr. Foley expects to be absent two weeks.

C. E. Pruitt, traveling freight agent of the C. M. & St. P. railway, left for Idaho today. He will visit the woolgrowers' convention at Pocatello before returning to this city.

L. T. Dyer, superintendent of telegraph of the Clark road, with headquarters at Los Angeles, is in town today. Mr. Dyer is on his way to Chicago, where he is bound on business for the road.

Fred L. Dewey, who for several weeks past has been acting chief clerk of the Rock Island railroad offices in this city, has accepted a position in the general offices of the Oregon Short Line. Mr. Dewey is an eastern railroad man of experience, and has established his home and moved his family to this city.

S. W. Watts, contractor in charge of the construction of the new Denver & Rio Grande passenger station in this city, is expected to arrive from the east in a few days, when he will commence the work of building the big depot. Mr. Watts will locate in this city with his family until the depot is completed.

Convention Rates—Reduced rates for the National Woolgrowers' convention at Pocatello, Jan. 14, 15 and 16, over all local roads will be made, the rate being one and one-third fare for round trip. A number of extra Pullman sleeping coaches will be stationed at Pocatello to take care of parties who are unable to secure bedroom accommodations in the city.

M. J. Buckley, general superintendent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company, J. M. Scott, assistant general passenger agent, and Zera Snow, the local agent of the same road, have returned to Portland after a conference with leading officials of the Oregon Short Line. Many matters of importance to both lines were gone over at the meetings, which extended over two days.

Fire in Yards—A fire started by some unknown person in the D. & H. 13 yards last night damaged three freight cars to the extent of $125 before being extinguished. An alarm of fire was sent into the department and two houses responded with engines and apparatus. It was at first thought the freight sheds of the Rio Grande were in flames, but this proved incorrect.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

There is nothing that strikes terror to the hearts of parents more than to be awakened in the night by the ringing cough which accompanies an attack of croup. The child may retire with nothing but a slight cold and a few hours later the family be aroused by the ominous symptoms. Every home where there are small children should be prepared for these sudden attacks, as prompt treatment is necessary. Do not
